

Bodegaverde de San Valero Garnacha Syrah DOP Carinena Organic 2019

Region

Cariñena is a Do (denomination of origin) in northern Spain. Winemaking in the area dates back to at least Roman times, and records from that era confirm that locals drank Cariñena wines mixed with honey. Cariñena is well known for its red wines, most notably Garnacha and white wines from Macabeo grapes.

Producer

Founded in Cariñena, in 1944, Cooperativa Vinícola San Valero currently has 500 winegrowers associated and 4,000 hectares of vineyards. Bodegaverde de San Valero was founded in 2014, and joined the Vinicola San Valero in 2019. Bodegaverde has the greatest amount of organic vines in Aragon, with a total area covering 330 hectares of 100% environmentally-friendly vineyards.

Tasting Notes

An organic blend of Garnacha and Syrah from Carinena. A round, warming red with notes of sweet red cherries, plum, a touch of chocolate and subtle spice on the finish from the Syrah in the blend. Balanced, smooth and very easy to drink.

Food

Best served with BBQ meats.
