

Allees De Cantermerle Haut Medoc 2015 2015

Region

A second wine is the term for a premium wine made by an estate that is second only to their Grand Vin. These wines are produced from the same vineyards as the grand vin but at a more accessible price and can be a great introduction to their 'older sibling'. In the vineyard and winery, these wines generally receive the same treatment as the grand vin however, the overall blend and maturation are different.

Producer

This imposing estate owes its name to John Talbot, Earl of Shrewsbury and Commander in Chief of the English army and defeated at the Battle of Castillon in 1453, when the English forces were holding Bordeaux. The estate is ideally located by the Gironde estuary, with the vineyards extending over the famous hilltops moulded in old Quaternary gravel, where only the greatest wines are produced. The vineyards consist of 102 hectares of vines, dominated by Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, with small amounts of Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc.

Tasting Notes

Les Allees de Cantemerle is the second wine of 5eme growth Ch Cantemerle. Deep ruby with hints of garnet. The nose shows black cherry, cassis and pencil shaving aromas. The palate is medium bodied, well rounded and soft, with an abundance of red and black fruits, sweet spice notes such as cinnamon and cloves and supple, ripe tannins.

Food

Enjoy as an accompaniment to roast lamb or beef, fine cuts of steak or well flavoured cheeses.
